For the next three questions, select all categories that, by your estimate, made up 25% or more of the population that directly benefited from the award during the period of support. These responses should refer to populations reached directly, rather than through broadcast or online programming.

Population Benefitted by Race/Ethnicity:

Population Benefitted by Age:

Population Benefitted by Distinct Group:

Were the goals of your project achieved? How so? If not, describe the reasons. How did you measure accomplishment or success? Describe any changes to your project or activities that may have occurred during the period of the grant.

Describe who participated in your project and the number of individuals who benefitted from or experienced your project. Be specific. Did this grant help employ someone in your organization? Who and to what degree?

Provide a detailed list of in-kind contributors.

Describe how your project worked to achieve the primary goal of the Oregon Cultural Trust: to lead in cultivating, growing, and valuing culture as an integral part of communities. Public participation in culture in Oregon is critical to this goal. How did you measure your work in cultivating, growing, and valuing culture as an integral part of your community? How did you measure expanded public participation? Provide specific examples.
